

The Book Nook

When Jonah and Summer stumble upon a secret passage and discover an enchanted mirror, they unwittingly begin an adventure that will take them from their home into the magical kingdom of Presadia.

Dwarves, dragons, elves and a quest to find a long-lost King – Jonah and Summer and their new friends learn important lessons about pride, greed and the power of words as they embark on an epic journey to save the realm.

Suitable for ages 8+ to read independently, or younger children if read out loud as a family. There are questions to talk about after each chapter if you read it together and the five main threads of the book, woven into the poem which runs through the story, reflect the key messages of the book of James in the Bible.

January Book of the Month

